

2nd season of Cities in Transition, 30th and 31st May

48h of Sustainable Management of Resources :
Producing and consuming differently

Monday 30th May- Territorial Resources Management : What tools for what perspectives in public policies ?

Meeting Room : Salon d'honneur of Grenoble City Hall, 11 boulevard Jean-Pain, Grenoble (possible access with tram C)

9h00-9h30 : Welcome

9h30-10h00 : Opening session

-  Vandana Shiva (by videoconference)
 - Physicist, epistemologist, ecologist, writer, and alter-globalist, particularly in defence of organic agriculture in face of the expansionist policies of agri-food multinationals.

10h00-10h30: Ice-Breaking with Florence Vialleton, Public Innovation Project Manager, City of Grenoble.

10h30-11h00: Break

11h00-12h30: Round table « Vegetation of consumption and public policies».

-  (Moderator) Sandra Krief
 - Grenoble City Councillor to the Animal Cause
-  Salima Djidel
 - Grenoble City Councillor responsible for Collective Catering and 2nd Vice-President for Health, Strategy and Food Safety at Grenoble-Alpes Métropole.
-  Brigitte Gothière or Erwin Goeller
 - Association L214, animal association, committed since 2008 to the promotion of alternative consumption solutions.
-  Loic Fayet
 - Mouvement des Cuisines Nourricières, committed to providing eco-responsible and ethical food.

12h30-15h00 : To be soon confirmed

15h00-16h15: (Ecological Accounting Forum) Workshop « From Ecological Account to the Doughnut Economy, overview of new Measures ».

-  Anne Tavernier
 - Administrative and Financial Director at La 27e Région, public transformation laboratory.
-  Jean Laudoaur
 - Project Manager & Administration Office at La 27e Région, public transformation laboratory.

16h15-16h30 : Break

16h30-18h00: (Ecological Accounting Forum) Round Table: « Counting what really matters: the time of ecological accounting »

-  Véronique Blum
 - Teacher-researcher at Centre d'études et de recherches appliquées à la gestion laboratory (CERAG) of Grenoble and director of the first thesis of the CARE implementation in communities.

-  Ciprian Ionescu
 - Natural Capital manager at WWF France

-  Alexandre Rambaud and Clément Feger
 - Lecture at AgroParisTech-CIRED, co-chair and scientific co-director of the Ecological Accounting Chair.

*All « to be confirmed » activities will be updated on Grenoble's City website.

Tuesday 31st May- Territories' nutrition and agricultural policies : towards a socio-ecological resilience ?

Meeting Room : Grenoble Horticulture Centre, 34 rue des Taillés in Saint-Martin d'Hères (possible access by Tram B or C)

9h00-9h30: Welcome

9h30-11h00: Meeting key structures

-  Agence Nationale de la Cohésion des Territoires
 - URBACT PROGRAMME, European Union Development Fund.

-  Let's food Association
 - Experts in territorial cooperation : territorial food diagnostics developers.

11h15-12h00: Guided tour of Grenoble's Horticultural Centre with the Nature en Ville Grenoble Department.

12h00-12h30: to be soon confirmed

12h30-13h15: Lunch with Radi'selle, eco-responsible catering.

13h15-14h00: To be confirmed

14h45-16h15 : Round Table « Agri-urbanisme and bioregion : how to relocalise food production while strenghting agriculture sustainability ? »

(Moderator) Antoine Back

- Grenoble City councillor for Risks, territorial resilience, new indicators and food strategy.

Adrien Baysse-Lainé

- Resercher in PACTE laboratory, expert in agricultural territories and food relocation.

Christine Oriol

- Projet Manager for the Inter-Territorial Food Project at Grenoble-Alpes Métropole.

Let's food association

- Opertional actors on territorial food policies.

16 :30-17h30 : Speed meetings/ Participating Cities & Local Contexts

17h30-18h30: Collective conclusions with Florence Vialleton, Public Innovation Manager, City of Grenoble.

18h30-18h45: Closing speech

18h45-20h00: Cocktail reception with partners

All « to be confirmed » activities will be updated on Grenoble's City website.*